Trip Itinerary

Day 1: You will depart from your hometown airport in the United States.

Day 2: Arrival. Visit the amazing Amalfi Coast. Dinner at the hotel area at 6:45 pm. Red and white wine included. Casual Dress throughout the day. Overnight in Pompeii or Sorrento.

Day 3: The Island of Capri is the greatest place for many people. Optional: visit the extraordinary, beautiful Blue Grotto with its limestone bottom or just tour the island, shopping, and swimming. Dinner around the hotel area at 6:45 pm. Red and white wine included. Casual Dress throughout the day. Overnight in Pompeii or Sorrento.

Day 4: Check-out. Visit the incredible city of Pompeii on your way to Rome. Drive to Rome. In the afternoon, we will be visiting St. Mary Major, the main Basilica dedicated to Mary in Rome. We will see the remains of Jesus' manger, the tomb of Bernini, the remains of St. Matthew the Evangelist, the tomb of St. Jerome, and the oldest icon in the world of the Virgin Mary painted by St. Luke: the famous Salus Populi Romani. We may immerse ourselves in the local culture by attending an Italian mass at St. Mary Major as well. Casual dress. Dinner and overnight in Rome.

Day 5: Today we will spend the day in Vatican City, the smallest country in the world. First, we will visit the Vatican Museums, including the Sistine Chapel (the Pope's private Chapel). After the museums we will enter the Basilica of St. Peter in the Vatican. Since we arrange all of our tours in

About Pro Catholic Tours

Pro Catholic Tours welcomes you! We offer several unique itineraries using four & five star accommodations exclusively. Our tours are all-inclusive, and we take care of all the details from beginning to end. We support the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and we entrust our pilgrimages to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

advance you will not have to stand in long lines to gain entrance. St. Peter's is the largest Basilica in the world and the building itself is great piece of art by Bernini, whose tomb you will remember seeing at St. Mary Major on Day 2. Vatican rules dictate that your shoulders and knees must be covered out of respect while in St. Peter's Basilica, so make sure your wardrobe today includes long pants, capris, or skirts below the knee, and no sleeveless shirts or tank tops. Again, we will have dinner with red and white wine included and stay overnight in Rome.

Day 6: Today, enjoy the most well know symbol of the city of Rome: Visit the Colosseum from the outside. Built in 80 A.D., it still stand as one of the greatest monuments in human history. This will be followed by a visit to the nearby Basilica of St. John Lateran; the first Basilica ever to be built in the Roman Empire after it became a Christian empire under Constantine. In the afternoon, we will have an amazing tour of the Catacombs where 500,000 people were buried. After the Catacombs we will have a wine tasting at either Lake Albano, Summer home of the Pope, or Santa Maria in Trastevere, the most famous quarter of Rome known for its beauty and quaintness. Later dinner at at a local upscale restaurant~ "eat where the Italians eat". There will be several courses of delicious Italian food, and, of course, red and white wine will be included. We will arrive back at the hotel for overnight in Rome.

Day 7: We will be outside most of the day today so dress casually with comfortable walking shoes. This morning is the Audience with the Pope at 10:00 am (10:30 am). We will need to depart from the hotel early so we get to see the Pope very closely. Following the General Audience there will be time for lunch in the area of the Vatican. We will spend the afternoon visiting the historical center of Rome. Our first stop will be the Spanish Steps, where the ancient Romans hung out followed by a short walk to

Hotels

We only make reservations at 4 or 5 star hotels.

Trevi Fountain; throw a coin over your shoulder into the fountain and have time for shopping. We will continue on with a walk to the Pantheon, the oldest functional building in the world. Finally, we will end at the great artistic place of Piazza Navona, arriving about 4:30 pm. This evening's dinner will be at a local restaurant in the area of Piazza Navona, and, as always, will include red and white wine. This will be our last night at our hotel in Rome.

Day 8: This morning we will say good-bye to Rome as we head north toward the Tuscany region. We will break up the drive by stopping to visit the beautiful town of Assisi. There will be time to see the tombs of St. Francis and St. Clare, take a self-guided tour of the Basilica of St. Francis, and enjoy the peace and serenity as you wander the streets of Assisi. Make sure you have some lunch at one of the cafés while in Assisi, then we will continue on our way to Florence. Dinner tonight will include red and white wine served at a local restaurant in Tuscany on the way to our hotel in Florence.

Day 9: Today, dress casually and get ready to see everything Florence has to offer: museums, shopping, a Cathedral, and more. Our tour will include Ponte Vecchio; Piazza della Signoria; the Uffizzi; Michelangelo's masterpiece, The David; the Flea Market; the Duomo (Cathedral); and the Baptistery. The tour guide will be available to assist you, if you are interested in seeing even more sites. Our last dinner in Florence will include red and white wine and will be at a local restaurant. Dinner and overnight Florence.

Day 10: Drive to Cinque Terre, which is also known as "Five Lands" composed of five villages: Monterosso al Mare, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, and Riomaggiore. Dinner in the Cinque Terre region and overnight in Florence.

Day 11: Tour of the city of Bologna. Visit The Two Towers, Piazza Maggiore, Basilica di San >Petronio, and the Santuario Madonna di San Luca. Dinner and overnight in Venice.

Day 12: Tour of Venice, also known as the Dominante city, the city of Masks, an amazing city built on water. We will begin with a visit to St. Mark's Plaza. From there you can choose to visit St. Mark's Cathedral, go on a Gondola ride, or spend time shopping and visiting the beautiful streets and bridges of Venice. While the Gondola ride is optional, the tour guide will organize everything for you. Casual dress is appropriate for today but long pants are required if you intend to go inside St. Mark's. We will have our closing dinner in Venice around the area of the hotel, as this will be our last night in Italy. We will spend the night in Venice.

Day 13: Fly back home.

Please Note: We do our best to ensure that all sites listed in this itinerary will be seen. However, due to scheduling conflicts, or other circumstances beyond our control, sites may be visited on a different day than listed. If this happens it will also necessitate a change in the restaurant for dinner. However, we will never sacrifice the quality of the meal, all restaurants will meet Proximo Travel's very high standards. Since we have several different trip configurations touring at the same time, it is likely that groups on different tours will be combined when their itineraries overlap in certain areas.

Trip Does Not Include

- Lunch
- Insurance - The total trip cost is non-refundable, so we recommend trip insurance to protect your investment.

Some Things to Know...

- When I reach my destination, is there someone there to meet me?

Upon arrival at your trip destination, obtain luggage and exit the baggage area. Outside the baggage claim doors, a representative will greet you with a Pro Catholic Tours Travel sign. If your flight is delayed or you cannot locate the Pro Catholic representative, please contact your tour guide at the number provided in your final packet before proceeding.

- When will I meet up with the group?

We have people traveling with us from all of the USA and Canada. Here at Pro Catholic Tours we try to have the group meet in the USA the day of their departure before the flight to their final destination. However, this is not always possible. Therefore, you will meet your entire group upon arrival to your trip destination.

- What happens if I cancel my trip?

Pro Catholic Tours does not refund any monies paid to date for a tour, regardless of circumstances. Travel Insurance is highly recommended to protect your investment.

- Be at the airport at least 3 and 1/2 hours before your departure.

This applies only to the airport of origination, not necessarily to the airport of connection. For example, if you're flying from Pittsburgh to Paris then from Paris to Rome, you need to be at the airport in Pittsburgh 3 hours before departure. Not necessarily in Paris where your connection time might be less than 3 hours.
